

The Restorative Imperative in Health-care: Broadening the Definition of Healing

19th April — 2024
10am — 12:00pm

UBC Midwifery is pleased to host this learning opportunity as part of the Elaine Carty Visiting Scholars Initiative.

Description

The keynote, given by Dr. Pedro Flores, will address the “restorative imperative in healthcare,” the most pressing issues affecting healthcare communities. This includes restorative justice (RJ) definitions and origins, RJ applications in healthcare, case studies, and research outcomes. The keynote will include interactive activities and a Q & A session.

This event will be in a Hybrid format with limited seats. All are welcome to join.

* Capacity is limited.

* A recording link will be provided.

Presenter

Dr. Pedro L. Flores, PhD, MAS, CCRP, a clinician and restorative justice (RJ) practitioner, is a professor and trainer at the Center for Restorative Justice at the University of San Diego. He led training for the Association of American Colleges (AAC&C) Restorative Justice in Academic Medicine (RJAM) and co-teaches the RJ module for the AAC&C's Health-care Executive Diversity and Inclusion Certificate (HEDIC) program.

RSVP HERE: <https://bit.ly/RJKeynote>

Two Minute Video Defining restorative justice.

Open the camera on your smart phone, scan the QR code, and tap on the link.

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Midwifery Program

Department of Family Practice | Faculty of Medicine

Event Location

UBC Life Sciences Centre (LSC) - 1001
2350 Health Sciences Mall
Vancouver BC, V6T 1Z3